How Your Money Will Be Spent

Woodrow Wilson, our standard bearer, has never had the time or disposition to talk about himself.

His greatest work has been done without ostentation, in the most expeditious, dignified manner.

To educate this great nation of voters, especially the clear thinking Independent Democrats, Republicans and Progressives who choose their leader on his merits, means the expenditure of a vast amount of money.

In Popular Government all the people have influence, because their executives and legislators do not dare to thwart the expressed will of the people.

Representative Government, as ever, this year is being supported by the money of the Interests. It is being spent lavishly to give the voters a wrong impression of Wilson.

"Eight years ago during the prestdential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and, being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the com-.nittee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I won-dered whether or not I had got into the

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workingmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore

"They said that when the farmer and workmen and the Quakers came to to enter the White House (as Helm know what Theodore Roosevelt had called) "an heavenly mission," written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and, of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country.

"As to whether or not that sort of of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself.

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not gard to the negro enumerators. This work with them now.

Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more

"Our Republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information, and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light I have no fear as to the results. S. census, the question Democratic national committee, said presented itself to the white people of the south was whether white or colored enumerators would take the individual census. The senator from Florida, Hon, Duncan Fletcher, called upon President Taft and interviewed his excellency on this point. After considerable discussion pro and con, the President informed Sepator Fletcher that the colored enumerators would only take the report of the negroes. But for fear that the supervisor who had the appointment of enumerators would fail to adhere to that program, Senator Fletcher tooked about in this State and selected men for supervisors on whom he could rely. Senator Fletcher had a fight on his hands. against him were Postmaster General Hitchcock, Secretary Nagel, of Interior Department. A negro named Jo Lee, revenue collector for Florida, and Henry Chubbs, register of the U. S. Land office, Gainesville, Fla., are the Republican bosses in this state. In this (Second) district a Kentuckian was selected by Senator Fletcher for Supervisor. Against Senator Fletcher were arrayed State and National Republican machines.
